UK: Two UniSZA students to represent M'sia in client consultation competition

KUALA NERUS: Two students from Universiti Sultan Zainal Abidin (UniSZA) have been selected to represent Malaysia at the Client Consultation Competition to vie for the Louis M. Brown Trophy in the United Kingdom from April 19 to 22.

UniSZA Vice-Chancellor, Professor Datuk Dr Ahmad Zubaidi said the two are fourth year students at its Law and International Relations Faculty.

“Galvin Loo Wei Ming and Goh Lai Ling, both aged 24, were champions in the 13th Harun M. Hashim National Client Counselling Competition (NCCC 2016) held in UniSZA, recently.

“They succeeded in defeating opponents from five other public universities that competed, namely Universiti Sains Islam Malaysia (USIM), Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM), Universiti Malaya (UM), Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM) and Universiti Teknologi Mara (UiTM),” he said in a statement, yesterday.

Galvin, who hails from Penang, said he was so happy and surprised when the UniSZA team was crowned champions in the competition.

Meanwhile, Goh Lai Ling said they would do their best internationally to highlight Malaysia and UniSZA's name. – Bernama
